

Italy Trips for Spring 2025

If excellent Italian regional foods & wines as well as lovely boutique hotels and great itineraries appeal why not join us in Italy next Spring, perhaps with friends or family?!

Please do contact us asap if interested in any of the departures below and we shall provide you with further info.

4th - 11th May 2025 (9 days/8 nights)

Ischia & Capri £4,200 (per person); Single Supplement £700

Our 'new' Italian itinerary makes the most of these two beautiful and surprisingly different Bay of Naples islands. History; architecture; 2 lovely hotels; delicious seafood; stunning coastal walks and, at this time of year, luxuriant flora are all part of the experience. The trip starts at Ischia port and ends at Capri port (We shall assist you with any transfers you may require).

15th - 22nd May 2025 (8 days/7 nights)

Classic Sicily £3,990 (per person); Single Supplement £600

Our longest running Italian trip and still one of the most popular, covering the centre and the Baroque eastern side of the Mediterranean's largest island. Great gastronomy; lovely accommodation; some of the best ancient Greek sites in the world; 2 nights at a renowned organic winery on Etna's slopes. The trip starts & ends at Catania Airport.

24th May - 1st June 2025 (9 days/8 nights)

Puglia and Lecce £4,700 (per person); Single Supplement £1,150

One of Italy's biggest and most varied regions. Great food & wines; lovely accommodation, including 2 'Masserie' (Aristocratic farmsteads); Alberobello's renowned conical 'Trulli'; 2 coasts, castles & cathedrals; and 3 nights in Baroque UNESCO WH Lecce. The trip starts & ends at Bari Airport.

15th - 22nd June 2025 (8 days/7 nights)

Sud Tyrol and Cortina £4,650 (per person); Single Supplement £750

Our Dolomites walking trip is timed to make the most of Alpine flowers. We stay in 3 excellent family-run hotels. Stunning mountain scenery; great food and wines; daily walks (Nothing too taxing) in varied terrain of between 4 & 5 hours (For most walks there is the option of taking ski lifts to avoid climbs or descents); historical interest along the WWI Italo Austrian front; and the possibility for you to extend in Verona. The trip starts & ends at Verona Airport.
